

Retail Properties of America, Inc.

COVID-19 State Responses

3/25/2020

State	Announcement
Arizona	3/20/20 Gov. Ducey's office announces a two-week extension of school closures through Friday, April 10. Effective close of business on March 20, all restaurants in Arizona counties with confirmed COVID-19 cases are required to provide dine-out options only; and, all bars, movie theaters and gyms in those counties are required to close. Recommendations to cancel or postpone mass gatherings of 10 or more people. 3/15/20 Nothing closed but recommends canceling events of 50 or more. Schools are closed through March 27.
California	3/19/20 Gov. Newsom issues stay home notice except for essential needs until further notice.
District of Columbia	3/20/20 Mayor Bowser on Friday extended the city's prohibition of on-site service at restaurants and bars and the closure of theaters, gyms and spas until April 25. No school, church, dining out or visits to the movie theater or gym for at least six weeks 3/17/20 On-site bar and restaurant service has been suspended in the District of Columbia, and movie theaters and gyms shut down. Restaurants may still offer food for carryout and delivery
Georgia	3/23/20 Gov. Kemp issues new executive orders effective noon on March 24 and expiring at noon on April 6 requiring certain individuals with an increased risk of complications from COVID-19 to shelter in place; close all bars and nightclubs; and, ban all gatherings of 10 people or more unless you can maintain at least six feet between people at all times. 3/19/20 Mayor Bottoms issued orders for the closure of all bars and nightclubs that do not serve food, gyms and fitness centers, movie theaters, live performance venues, bowling alleys, and arcades, and private social clubs, located within the territorial jurisdictional limits of the City of Atlanta. Dine-out options only via delivery service, drive-through, or take-out. 3/17/20 Gov. Kemp ordered all public elementary, secondary, and post-secondary schools to be closed by March 18 through at least March 31.
Illinois	3/20/20 Gov. Pritzker announced a stay at home order for all residents effective March 21 at 5:00 p.m. through April 7. In addition to the stay at home provisions, it also orders all local government units across the state to halt all evictions, and bans gatherings of more than 10 people. Chicago Public Schools had already extended its shutdown at least through April 20. 3/16/20 Gov. Pritzker issued a ban on gatherings down to 10 from 50. This includes restaurants, bars, coffee shops, theaters, gyms and fitness, and entertainment venues. Restaurants can operate for carry out and delivery only. Schools closed until March 30.
Maryland	3/23/20 Gov Hogan issues executive order to close all non-essential business in Maryland effective 5:00 p.m. on March 23. In addition to what is already closed by prior orders, this order requires the closure of anything that is not included in the new federal guidelines for critical infrastructure sectors. Interpretive Guidance from the Maryland Office of Legal Counsel. 3/19/20 Gov. Hogan announces further action to reduce the size of social, cultural, and community gatherings to 10 people, and require the closure of all enclosed shopping malls (effective 5:00 p.m. on March 19), as well as bowling alleys and pool halls. All gyms, casinos, theatres are closed. Bars/restaurants are limited to take out and delivery. This order does not apply to food or beverage services in healthcare facilities.
Michigan	3/23/20 Gov. Whitmer Signs "Stay Home, Stay Safe" Executive Order effective at 12:01 a.m. on March 24 and continues through April 13, 2020 at 11:59 pm. For a full list of these critical infrastructure workers, click the link to Executive Order 2020-21. 3/16/20 All gyms, casinos, theatres are closed. Bars/restaurants are limited to take out and delivery. Limits gatherings to no more than 50 people. 3/12/20 Gov. Whitmer ordered closure of all K-12 school buildings, public, private, and boarding schools in the state until April 6.
New Jersey	3/21/20 Gov. Phil Murphy announces statewide stay at home order, closure of all non-essential retail businesses, and cancellation of all gatherings effective March 21 at 9:00 p.m. until further notice. 3/18/20 Governors From Connecticut, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania announce additional measures including portions of large malls, amusement parks, and bowling alleys added to list of statewide closures effective 8:00 p.m. March 19. 3/17/20 All gyms, casinos, theatres are closed. Bars/restaurants are limited to take out and delivery - the order taking effect at 8:00 p.m. on March 17.
New York	3/20/20 Effective 8:00 p.m. March 22, Gov. Cuomo signs 'New York state on pause' order for 100% closure of all non-essential businesses, and residents should stay indoors except for essential jobs, errands, emergencies and solo exercise. Bars/restaurants are limited to take out and delivery.

Texas	3/24/20 A Stay Home – Work Safe Order has been issued for Houston and Harris County effective 11:59 pm. March 24 until April 3. 3/24/20 Tarrant County announces stay in place order effective 11 :59 p.m. on March 24 until April 7. 3/23/20 City of Waco Mayor Kyle Deaver has issued a shelter in place order for the city. Shortly after, the McLennan County Commissioners Court made a similar order. 3/23/20 Galveston County has issued a stay-at-home order for all residents beginning March 24 at 11:59 p.m. until April 3. 3/23/20 San Antonio Mayor Ron Nirenberg has issued what he calls a “stay home, work safe” order for residents. It begins at 11:59 p.m. March 24 and will last through at least April 9. 3/22/20 Dallas County Stay Home Stay Safe order effective as of 11:59 p.m. on March 23, and continuing until 11:59 p.m. on April 3. 3/22/20 Denton County Judge Andy Eads issued a new disaster declaration and executive order, effective 11:59 p.m. on March 23 and continue for not more than 7 days. 3/19/20 Gov. Abbott has signed an executive order banning gatherings of 10 or more, dining in restaurants, and closing gyms, among other measures. Bars will also be closed until the executive order expires April 3. All schools are temporarily closed. The order may be extended beyond April 3.
Virginia	3/23/20 Gov. Northam announces the statewide closure of dine-in restaurants and entertainment venues, non-essential retail businesses, and bans public gatherings of more than 10 people effective 11:59 p.m. March 24 until 11:59 p.m. April 23, and extends school closures through the rest of the academic year amid the coronavirus pandemic.
Washington	3/23/20 Gov. Inslee announces "Stay Home, Stay Healthy" order. Bans on gatherings and going out take effect immediately. Non-essential business closures must happen 48 hours after Inslee signs the order. The order will last for two weeks and could be extended. 3/16/20 Gov. Inslee announced an emergency proclamation that mandates the closure of all restaurants, bars, coffee shops, theaters, gyms and fitness through March 31. Restaurants are limited to take-out, grab and go and delivery. All public and private K-12 schools in Washington's three largest counties (King, Pierce and Snohomish) must close by March 17 and will not reopen before April 27.

State	Financial Assistance Resources
Arizona	Arizona business resources to support small businesses during the COVID-19 outbreak. 3/19/20 Arizona has received official designation from the SBA for the Economic Injury Disaster Loan program that will help small businesses here in the state impacted by COVID-19.
California	Gov. Newsom's Office of Business and Economic Development has compiled helpful information for employers, employees and all Californians as it relates to the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. 3/18/20 Mayor Eric Garcetti today announced an $11 million economic relief package for small businesses impacted by the novel coronavirus (COVID-19).
District of Columbia	3/17/20 Mayor Bowser announced that the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) has accepted the District of Columbia's declaration for assistance in the form of economic injury disaster loans.
Georgia	3/19/20 Georgia receives SBA statewide disaster declaration , applications for small business emergency loans now open.
Illinois	The Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity is working diligently to secure access to helpful resources for small businesses throughout the State of Illinois and has compiled these helpful links regarding COVID 19 resources for small businesses. The State of Illinois has received its statewide Economic Injury Declaration statewide Economic Injury Declaration which means small businesses in all 102 Illinois counties may be eligible. The Department of Business Affairs and Consumer Protection (BACP) resources page for City of Chicago Businesses, Consumers and Employees impacted by the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) Outbreak.
Maryland	For additional business resources available during the COVID-19 outbreak, please visit Maryland's COVID-19 Business Response . 3/23/20 Gov. Hogan announced Emergency Relief Fund Programs for Businesses to assist small businesses and workers affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. 3/23/20 Expected Montgomery County Economic Development Fund bill established. 3/19/20 Maryland has received official designation from the SBA for the Economic Injury Disaster Loan program.
Michigan	The Michigan Small Business Relief Program provides resources for Michigan businesses during COVID-19. 3/19/20 Gov. Whitmer announced that the Small Business Administration (SBA) approved her request for a statewide Economic Injury Disaster Loan declaration, allowing small businesses to access loans from the SBA.
New Jersey	All New Jersey counties are now approved for federal disaster assistance, making New Jersey businesses eligible to apply for Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDLs) .
New York	Small business owners in New York are currently eligible to apply for a low-interest loan due to Coronavirus (COVID-19) through the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). Mayor Bill de Blasio announced on March 8 that the City will provide relief for small businesses across the City seeing a reduction in revenue because of COVID-19.
Texas	The U.S. SBA granted Texas' Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) assistance declaration, making loans available statewide to small businesses and private, non-profit organizations to help alleviate economic injury caused by the Coronavirus (COVID-19).
Washington	3/17/20 Gov. Inslee's Office compiled a list of resources for impacted Washington businesses and workers. These resources are aimed at supporting economic retention and recovery efforts.